

Bank Negara names Suhaimi Ali as assistant governor as Norzila Abdul Aziz retires

KUALA LUMPUR: Bank Negara Malaysia has named Suhaimi Ali as an assistant governor effective from April 1.

The central bank also announced that assistant governor Norzila Abdul Aziz would retire on April 1.

Suhaimi joined Bank Negara in 1998 after graduating from the University of Notre Dame in the United States.

He has served in various areas including financial sector development, regulation and supervision, strategic planning, market conduct, international negotiations and IT services, as well as in the governor's office.

Norzila, meanwhile, joined the central bank in 1988, and has played an instrumental role in strengthening and modernising its investment operations and financial markets functions, and in driving the efforts to deepen the Malaysia's financial market.

"Assistant governor Adnan Zaylani Mohamad Zahid will assume Puan Norzila's existing portfolio comprising the Investment Operations and Financial Markets and Foreign Exchange Policy departments.

"He will also oversee the Data Management and Statistics department. Suhaimi will meanwhile assume Adnan's existing portfolio comprising the Financial Development and Innovation, Islamic Finance, as well as Financial Inclusion departments," Bank Negara said.

Governor Tan Sri Nor Shamsiah Mohd Yunus said: "On behalf of Bank Negara, I would like to express my thanks and utmost appreciation to Norzila for her significant contributions to Bank Negara and country in her 35 years of service.

"Her dedicated service and leadership has helped us navigate and respond to challenging episodes which include the Asian and global financial crises, and the pandemic."

<https://www.nst.com.my/business/2022/03/780495/bank-negara-names-suhaimi-ali-assistant-governor-norzila-abdul-aziz-retires>