PETALING JAYA: Technology has now made it possible for internet-savvy people like Helena Ping, 27, (picture) to offer online information for the 5th Population and Housing Census 2010 which was launched yesterday.

She's not alone in wanting to tal

Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Tan Sri Nor Mohamed Yakcop.

He said the census is vital for identifying the 40% or 2.4 million households with the lowest income in the country, so the government can use the data to draw up and implement policies to empower the group and to raise their economic status and quality of life.
