Robust domestic demand, strong industrial performance, and steady external trade supported Malaysia's economic momentum

- Malaysia's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) grew by 6.3 per cent in the fourth quarter of 2025. Growth was primarily driven by the Services and Manufacturing sectors. On the demand side, Private final consumption expenditure and Gross fixed capital formation continued to fuel the economic activity.

- Natural rubber production decreased 25.1 per cent (28,684 tonnes) as compared to December 2024 (38,299 tonnes). Meanwhile, the fresh fruit bunches production in January 2026 showed an increasing of 21.0 per cent year-on-year as compared to January 2025 (6,581,739 tonnes).

- The Industrial Production Index (IPI) rose by 6.0 per cent for the fourth quarter of 2025 as compared to Q4 2024 (4.5%). Meanwhile, sales of Manufacturing sectors rose by 5.8 per cent year-on-year in the fourth quarter of 2025, reaching RM509.5 billion (Q4 2024: 4.4%).

- Malaysia's Services sector generated a revenue of RM677.8 billion in fourth quarter of 2025, reflecting an 8.0 per cent year-on-year increase. Correspondingly, the Volume Index of Services increased by 6.5 per cent to 167.7 points.

- Malaysia's inflation rose marginally to 1.6 per cent in January 2026, with the index points increased to 135.7 from 133.6 in the same month of the previous year. Meanwhile, inflation in the fourth quarter of 2025 increased by 1.3 per cent as compared to the same quarter of the preceding year.

- The Producer Price Index for Local Production continued to decline by 1.5 per cent in the fourth quarter of 2025 as compared to the 0.8 per cent decrease in the Q4 2024. The decline was due to Agriculture, forestry & fishing (-6.7%), Mining (-5.7%) and Manufacturing (-0.8%) sectors.

- Malaysia's annual trade performance in Q4 2025 saw a significant increased of 11.7 per cent, with exports increased by 11.0 per cent year-on-year and imports recorded a higher growth of 12.6 per cent as compared to the corresponding quarter of the preceding year. However, growth in the trade surplus contracted moderately by 0.6 per cent.

- Malaysia's labour force rose by 3.0 per cent to 17.62 million persons in fourth quarter of 2025. Meanwhile, the number of employed persons increased by 3.3 per cent to 17.10 million persons, recording a Labour Force Participation Rate (LPFR) at 70.9 per cent. The number of unemployed persons decline by 3.9 per cent with the unemployment rate fell to 2.9 per cent.
