International Organisation

INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATION

The International Association for Official Statistics (IAOS) is an association founded in 1985. It is an international non-governmental organization (NGO), which was created and developed as a specialized section of the International Statistical Institute (ISI). It is thus an Association of physical and legal persons who have scientific or professional interest in the field of official statistics. IAOS brings together producers and users of official statistics. It is run by an Executive Committee elected for a period of two years.

<http://www.iaos-isi.org/>

The Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) is a specialized agency of the United Nations that leads international efforts to defeat hunger. With over 194 member states and 130 countries worldwide, FAO acts as a neutral forum where all nations meet as equals to negotiate arguments and debate policy.

<http://www.fao.org>

The Statistical, Economic and Social Research and Training Centre for Islamic Countries (SESRIC), was founded as a subsidiary organ of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) in pursuance of Resolution No. 2/8-E adopted by the Eighth Islamic Conference of Foreign Ministers (ICFM), held in Tripoli in May 1977. The Centre started its activities in Ankara on 1 June 1978.

<http://www.sesric.org>

The United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP) is the regional development arm of the United Nations for the Asia-Pacific region. Made up of 53 Member States and 9 Associate Members. The region covered by the Commission is home to 4.1 billion people, or two thirds of the world's population, making ESCAP the most comprehensive of the United Nation's five regional commissions.

<https://www.unescap.org>

The World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) is the United Nations agency responsible for the promotion of responsible, sustainable and universally accessible tourism. As the leading international organization in the field of tourism, UNWTO promotes tourism as a driver of economic growth, inclusive development and environmental sustainability and offers leadership and support to the sector in advancing knowledge and tourism policies worldwide.

<http://www2.unwto.org>

The only tripartite U.N. agency, since 1919 the International Labour Organization (ILO) brings together governments, employers and workers of 187 member States, to set labour standards, develop policies and devise programmes promoting decent work for all women and men.

<https://www.ilo.org>

INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATION

The ASEAN Community Statistical System (ACSS) is a partnership between and among the national statistical systems of the ASEAN Member States (AMSs), the ASEAN Community Councils, and the ASEAN Secretariat. The ACSS provide relevant, timely and comparable ASEAN statistics in support of evidence based policy and decision making and enhance the statistical capacity of the Member States and ASEAN Secretariat.

<https://asean.org>

The Organisation of Islamic Cooperation Statistical Commission (OIC StatCom) is an initiative by SESRIC. It was established in 2011 with the aim of enhancing the cooperation among the National Statistical Organisations (NSOs) of the member countries with a view to supporting their national statistical systems for the development of better national strategies and policies.

<http://www.oicstatcom.org>

The Asian Development Bank (ADB) is a regional development bank established on 19 December 1966, which is headquartered Manila, Philippines. From 31 members at its establishment, ADB now has 67 members, of which 48 are from within Asia and the Pacific and 19 from outside. The ADB was modelled closely on the World Bank, and has a similar weighted voting system where votes are distributed in proportion with members' capital subscriptions.

<https://www.adb.org>

The United Nations Security Council (UNSC) is one of the six principal organs of the United Nations. The Security Council has primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security. It has 15 Members, and each Member has one vote. Under the Charter of the United Nations, all Member States are obligated to comply with Council decisions. The Security Council takes the lead in determining the existence of a threat to the peace or act of aggression.

<https://www.un.org/securitycouncil>

The United Nations Statistics Division (UNSD), serves under the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (DESA) as the central mechanism within the Secretariat of the United Nations to supply the statistical needs and coordinating activities of the global statistical system. The Division established in 1947, as the apex entity of the global statistical system and highest decision making body for coordinating international statistical activities.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATION

The International Statistical Institute (ISI) is a non-profit, non-government organization and has had consultative status with the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations since 1949. The ISI Mission is to lead, support and promote the understanding, development and good practice of statistics worldwide, by providing the core global network for statistics.

<https://isi-web.org>

The United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women, also known as UN Women, is a United Nations entity dedicated to gender equality and the empowerment of women. A global champion for women and girls, UN Women was established to accelerate progress on meeting their needs worldwide. It works globally to make the vision of the Sustainable Development Goals a reality for women and girls and stands behind women's equal participation in all aspects of life.

<http://www.unwomen.org>

The Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) is an intergovernmental economic organisation with 36 member countries, founded in 1961 to stimulate economic progress and world trade. Most OECD members are high-income economies with a very high Human Development Index (HDI) and are regarded as developed countries. OECD is an official United Nations observer.

<http://www.oecd.org>

The United Nations Statistical Institute for Asia and the Pacific (UNSIAP) was established in May 1970 as a centre for statistical training in Asia and the Pacific by 20 Governments, the United Nations and United Nations Development Programme by the initiative of Government of Japan. In April 1995, the Institute was accorded the status of a subsidiary body of the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP).
